

BA HEM - Common Syllabus

History, Economics & Mathematics

Duration: 3 Years (6 Semesters) Pattern: Semester System

Semester	History	Economics	Mathematics
Semester 1	Ancient Indian History	Principles of Microeconomics	Algebra & Basic Calculus
Semester 2	Medieval Indian History	Principles of Macroeconomics	Differential Calculus & Coordinate Geometry
Semester 3	Modern Indian History	Indian Economy	Integral Calculus & Differential Equations
Semester 4	World History / Modern Europe	Public Finance / Development Economics	Linear Algebra & Vector Calculus
Semester 5	Indian National Movement / Contemporary India	International Economics / Money & Banking	Real Analysis / Numerical Methods
Semester 6	Indian Culture, Heritage & Historiography	Economic Development / Applied Economics	Probability & Statistics / Advanced Mathematics

Common / Foundation Subjects

English Communication, Environmental Studies, Skill Enhancement Courses, Value Education, Computer / Digital Skills, Generic Electives and project or assignment components may be included depending on the university curriculum.

Subject-wise Common Areas

History: Ancient India, Medieval India, Modern India, Indian National Movement, World History, Indian Culture and Heritage, Historiography.

Economics: Microeconomics, Macroeconomics, Indian Economy, Public Finance, Development Economics, Money and Banking, International Economics and Applied Economics.

Mathematics: Algebra, Differential Calculus, Integral Calculus, Coordinate Geometry, Differential Equations, Linear Algebra, Vector Calculus, Real Analysis, Numerical Methods, Probability and Statistics.

Important: This is a general/common reference syllabus. Exact paper names, credits, topics and semester distribution may vary by university. Please verify the official university syllabus for academic or admission purposes.