

Common B.A. - HEP (History, Economics, Political Science) Syllabus

SEMESTER 1

1. History of India - From Early Times to 1206 CE
2. Microeconomics - I
3. Introduction to Political Science
4. English Language - I
5. Environmental Studies / Value Education

SEMESTER 2

1. History of India - 1206 CE to 1707 CE
2. Microeconomics - II
3. Political Theory and Concepts
4. English Language - II
5. Computer Applications / Skill Enhancement Course

SEMESTER 3

1. History of Modern India - 1707 CE to 1857 CE
2. Macroeconomics - I
3. Comparative Government and Politics
4. Indian Constitution and Governance
5. Elective / Open Elective

SEMESTER 4

1. History of Modern India - 1858 CE to 1947 CE
2. Macroeconomics - II

3. International Relations - I
4. Indian Political Thought
5. Environmental Economics / Skill Enhancement Course

SEMESTER 5

1. World History (1453 CE - 1945 CE)
2. Development Economics
3. Public Administration
4. Research Methodology in Social Sciences
5. Open Elective / Internship

SEMESTER 6

1. Contemporary India (Post-1947)
2. International Economics
3. Western Political Thought
4. Global Politics and Contemporary Issues
5. Project Work / Dissertation

ELECTIVE SUBJECTS (Depending on University)

- Economic History of India
- Human Rights and Gender Studies
- Public Policy and Governance
- Indian Economy
- Urban and Rural Development
- Political Sociology

Note: This syllabus provides a general framework based on the structure followed by most UGC-recognized universities for B.A. programs with a triple major in History, Economics, and Political Science (HEP).