

BA HPS - Common Syllabus

History, Political Science & Sociology

Duration: 3 Years (6 Semesters) Pattern: Semester System

Semester	History	Political Science	Sociology
Semester 1	Ancient Indian History	Introduction to Political Science / Political Theory	Introduction to Sociology
Semester 2	Medieval Indian History	Indian Government & Politics	Indian Society & Social Structure
Semester 3	Modern Indian History	Comparative Government & Politics	Social Institutions & Social Change
Semester 4	World History / Modern Europe	Public Administration	Rural & Urban Sociology
Semester 5	Indian National Movement / Contemporary India	International Relations	Social Problems in India
Semester 6	Indian Culture, Heritage & Historiography	Indian & Western Political Thought	Sociological Thinkers / Social Research Methods

Common / Foundation Subjects

English Communication, Environmental Studies, Skill Enhancement Courses, Value Education, Generic Electives, Computer / Digital Skills and project or assignment components may be included depending on the university curriculum.

Subject-wise Common Areas

History: Ancient India, Medieval India, Modern India, Indian National Movement, World History, Indian Culture and Heritage, Historiography.

Political Science: Political Theory, Indian Constitution and Government, Comparative Politics, Public Administration, International Relations, Indian Political Thought and Western Political Thought.

Sociology: Introduction to Sociology, Indian Society, Social Institutions, Social Change, Rural and Urban Sociology, Social Problems, Sociological Thinkers and Social Research Methods.

Important: This is a general/common reference syllabus. Exact subject names, credits and semester distribution may vary by university. Please verify the official university syllabus for academic or admission purposes.