

Master of Arts (M.A.) – Education — Common Syllabus

Duration: 2 years (4 semesters) | Evaluation: Theory exams, Assignments, Field Work, Dissertation

Course Structure

- Duration: 2 years (4 semesters).
- Each semester includes 4–5 core papers and electives.
- Credits: Typically 3–4 per paper.
- Evaluation: Written exams, internal assessments, field work, and dissertation/project.

Semester I — Suggested Papers

- Philosophical Foundations of Education
- Sociological Foundations of Education
- Psychological Foundations of Education – I
- Educational Research and Statistics – I
- Contemporary Issues in Education

Semester II — Suggested Papers

- Philosophy of Education – Modern Trends
- Psychological Foundations of Education – II
- Educational Research and Statistics – II
- Curriculum Development and Instruction
- Teacher Education

Semester III — Suggested Papers

- Educational Technology and ICT in Education
- Educational Measurement and Evaluation
- Guidance and Counselling
- Educational Administration and Management
- Elective / Field Work / Internship

Semester IV — Suggested Papers

- Value Education and Human Rights
- Inclusive Education and Special Needs
- Policy, Planning and Economics of Education
- Research Project / Dissertation / Viva Voce
- Elective Paper – (Environmental Education / Gender Studies / Peace Education)

Electives (Indicative List)

- Environmental Education
- Gender and Education
- Peace and Value Education
- Comparative Education
- Life Skills and Holistic Development
- Early Childhood and Elementary Education

Notes:

- This common syllabus is prepared based on UGC model curriculum and major Indian universities' structures.
- Each paper typically carries 100 marks, with a 70:30 ratio for external and internal assessment.
- Students are required to complete a dissertation or research project in the final semester.
- Field work, practicum, and internship components are compulsory in selected semesters.

Prepared by: ChatGPT — Common M.A. Education Syllabus Template

Date: October 7, 2025